Decatur Central cancelled their Invitational, as they are now hosting a Semi-State (Class C). Warren was gracious to work us into their schedule of bands. We should try to adopt a “silent rehearsal” technique for the end of the season. Explained at District, and will be difficult for some of you to handle. Champion bands use this to their advantage. Be prepared! We may also experience cold weather. Bring appropriate clothing. Warren & Salem should be our best performances so far . . . this season. Gear up for a strong finish in the next few weeks!!!!
